

Charles Knapp

Charles Knapp has been a litigator and appellate attorney for over 35 years in both the commercial and criminal fields.

Before entering private practice, he served as an Assistant District Attorney for New York County and an Assistant United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York.

He has served as General Counsel to a structured finance group and was a FINRA license general securities principal (Series 7 and 24 – now expired).

His pro bono clients have included an international NGO of parliamentarians, an historic synagogue on New York's Lower East Side and a company that produces a natural chemical that provides addicts with a method for rapid detoxification while minimizing pain and related issues associated with withdrawal.
