

Dany L. Esquilin

Dan Esquilin has worked in management level positions for over 30 years. He presently operates as CEO of Dan Holiday Associates, a consulting firm specializing in business development, securing financial incentives and product marketing. His firm represents leading corporate firms from the real estate development, construction and energy industries before federal, state and local governments across the United States.

Working closely with governmental officials his firm has secured millions of dollars for its clients in the areas of grants, loans, tax credits, exemptions and abatements. Promoting firms wishing to develop or expand operations in the renewable energy industry has allowed the firm to be in the forefront of the Green Movement in New York, New Jersey, South Carolina and other states.

Representing major real estate firms and developers, the firm has obtained incentives to establish their operations in a timely and productive manner. These incentives allow the firm's clients to improve on their return of investment period projections and expand hiring totals resulting in stronger long term investments.

Mr. Esquilin works closely with the City University of New York Sustainable Works Project as its International Facilitator providing insight to 20 participating nations that attend their Annual Solar Summit. Through close relations with Ambassadors, Consul Generals and Trade Officers of the participating nations he is able to obtain cooperation on technology developed on an international level. The People's Republic of China was the first nation to sign on to participate at the 1st CUNY Solar Summit in 2007. He has also obtained sponsorships of the Solar Summit that attracts 400 participants annually from leading energy firms from NYS and the international community.

On an international level he has worked with leading energy firms such as Celestica of Canada, China Sunergy, Titan Atlas Manufacturing and Honeywell to promote sustainable energy products around the world. These products have proved to enhance the energy needs and aided in reducing energy costs for millions of residents.

With business and government contacts on four continents he is able to connect with the leading technology in the solar, wind and energy efficiency industries. He has also helped apply these up-to-date technologies to leading real estate developers.

Working with major investment banks on Wall Street he is also able to secure matching investors for local and international firms looking to establish operations in the United States. Creating employment opportunities in local economies through investment and incentives is a major thrust of Dan Holiday Associates company development.

On a social level, involvement with countless organizations affords for communication, contact and advocacy to hundreds of thousands of citizens through print, TV, radio, workshops/seminars and personal meetings.

With over 40 years of political advocacy as a Campaign Manager, Political Director, Statewide Coalitions Chairman and Field Director, countless candidates for Judge, District Attorney, Public Advocate, Mayor, Governor and President have relied on Dan Esquilin to guide them to victory through his citywide and statewide networks.

As a Lead Investigative Researcher, he has been involved in hundreds of cases involving fraud, homicides and corruption testifying in Federal and State Courts throughout New York.

Dan Esquilin is the Chairman of the NYS Puerto Rican Party, Inc, Former 1st Vice Chairman of the Kings County Republican County Committee, National Director of Jews In America.Com, Chairman of the Police Day Parade Committee, Inc., and Chairman of the Hispanic American Unity Party Inc.

Dan Esquilin has held key positions with the US Commerce Dept, NYS Department of State, NYC Human Rights Commission, the law firm of Klein and O'Brien, LLP, Hirschfeld Properties, Plumbers Industry of NYC, NYC Police Reserve Foundation, NYPD Model Block Program and Bank of America International-New York.
