Rachel Hirschfeld is an internationally renowned animal welfare attorney. She is one of the first attorneys to develop a focus on Animal Law, and an expert in estate planning for people and their animals. She advises animal shelters, rescues, farms, zoos, and wildlife sanctuaries.

The trauma of the catastrophic illness of Soupbone, her beloved shelter dog, set her on her life's path. She created the Pet Protection Agreement® pet trust for animal's uninterrupted care, valid in all fifty states. The Pet Protection Agreement saves millions of pets each year.

Broadway granted her a Tony® Award, the French Cordon Bleu gave her the top prize in cooking, and she is an honor graduate of Yeshiva University's Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law. Ms. Hirschfeld worked in the top position in the U.S. Attorney General's office in Washington, DC while still in law school. She is the founder of, and co-chairs, the New York County Lawyers Association's Animal Law Committee. Currently, she is teaching "Pet Trusts: Saving Animal Companions from the Unexpected" at New York University.

Rachel has served on the Advanced Programming and Education Committees of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, on the Trusts and Estates and Animal Law committees of the American, New York State, New York County and New York City Bar Associations.

PAW & ORDER: You Love Your Dog? Keep The Good Life Going With a Pet Trust, the new book authored by Rachel Hirschfeld, published by Page Publishing, coming September 2018.

PETRIARCH: The Complete Guide to Financial and Legal Planning for a Pet's Continued Care, is published by the American Institute of Certified Accountants (AICPA).

THE PERFECT PET TRUST: Saving Your Dog from the Unexpected, is a law review article authored by Rachel Hirschfeld and published by the Albany Government Law Review, Vol. 9.

Ms. Hirschfeld is often quoted in public media, including: ABC, Associated Press, CBS, CNN, Dow Jones, Forbes, Fox News, Huffington Post, The Today Show, The Early Show, The New York Post, The New York Times, The New Yorker, Newsweek, Newsday, Nightline, The National Academy of Elder Law Attorney's Journal, Consumer Digest, and The Wall Street Journal. Thomson Reuters publishes her lectures.

Through her Pet Protection Agreement® pet trust, which is designed to be affordable and supersede all other documents, Ms. Hirschfeld has brought credibility to pet protection and safeguarding animals. She lives with her rescues; Swizzle, Sundance, Snuggles, and Topper.

Ms. Hirschfeld is founder of The Ark Foundation program and Soupbone Charities.
